DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

The examiner recommends that an Information Disclosure Statement be filed listing the prior art cited in the specification.

Claim Objections

Claims 1-3 are objected to because of the following informalities: The listing of the claims which includes letters and roman numerals are improper and is difficult to follow, examiner suggest the use of indentation instead of using letters or numerals. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: In claim one the term "at least a second component" is used, a first component is not cited in the claims. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: the claim should be written to further limit the metes and bound of the claimed invention so that the limitations of the claims are clearly understood, however in claim 2 which refers a number of time back to claim 1, and also refers to claim 1 and to claim 2 itself after under letter "e", is improper dependency. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: under the letter "i" the after the word "diffuse illumination" is an improper Markush grouping. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation the diffusing means can be any shaped surface, and the claim also recites the diffusing means having a "V" shaped indentation which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Claims 2-4 are rejected because of its dependency upon claim 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 2-4 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Nowhere in the prior art is found all the limitations of the claimed invention as cited in claim 1, including the structure of the light source mounted on the printed circuit inside in the injected molded housing with a diffusing surface having the diffusing means having a V shaped indentations.

Conclusion

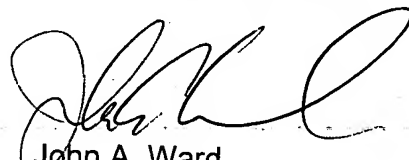

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chiang (US 6,505,963) shows an illumination running discloses a plurality of light sources mounted on a circuit board having a housing a diffuser, and Hou (6,619,824) shows an warning strip for an automobile also shows a plurality of light source mounted on a circuit board mounted inside the housing with a diffuser.
